Profile

A former president of Leetsdale Borough Council, Patricia Lee is a long-time resident of Leetsdale and graduate of Quaker Valley High School. The Lee family grew up in the area and Patricia cherishes her time with her three sons, grandson and extended family.

As a Human Resource professional with over 20 years of experience, Patricia's goals for the Borough include establishing best practices and ensuring the Borough maximizes its effectiveness and efficiency. She wants to work with the Mayor and Council to introduce opportunities that engage residents and businesses within the Borough.

Lee is an active volunteer serving on the Steering Committee for the Sewickley Community Juneteenth Celebration, and just finished serving on the board of the Sewickley Community Center for 10 years.

She went to University of Maryland for her undergraduate degree and has a Master of Art from Regent University.
